INSIDE LEBANON'S CENTER OF LEARNING

We tell the month-by-month and the day-by-day story of classes activities, sports and friendships . . . in 1941-1942.

DEDICATION

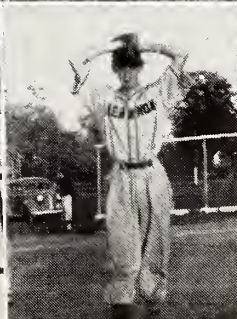

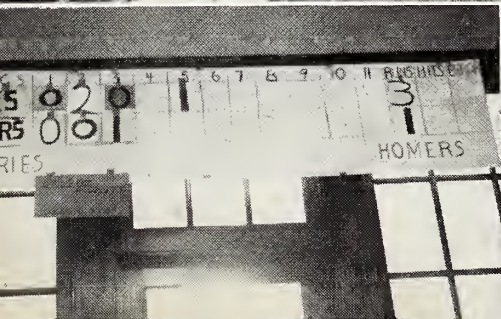

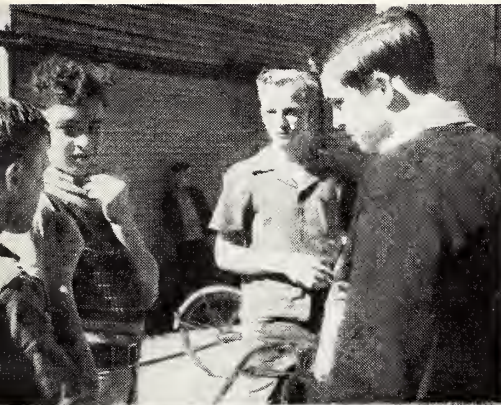

We pay tribute to a gracious lady and an outstanding teacher. It is with most sincere appreciation of the values gained through association with her that we, the class of '42, dedicate this Cedars to Miss Lydia Bell.

HIGH SCHOOL LIFE

SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER—

Groups of students like these junior high-ers were not uncommon the first day of school. Everyone was greeting old acquaintances . . . Do you know what the score is? You did last September, if you watched the score board above the Pennant Office . . . Pete Mount was in there pitching—the result, the team came out undefeated . . . Too bad all those attending the senior dinner party couldn't sit at the first table . . . These freshmen boys seemed to enjoy their class party at Memorial Park . . . The juniors will have to convince you that this is Virginia Walker, as she appeared the night of the junior class party . . . The day of basketball try-outs was a big event for L. H. S. athletes.

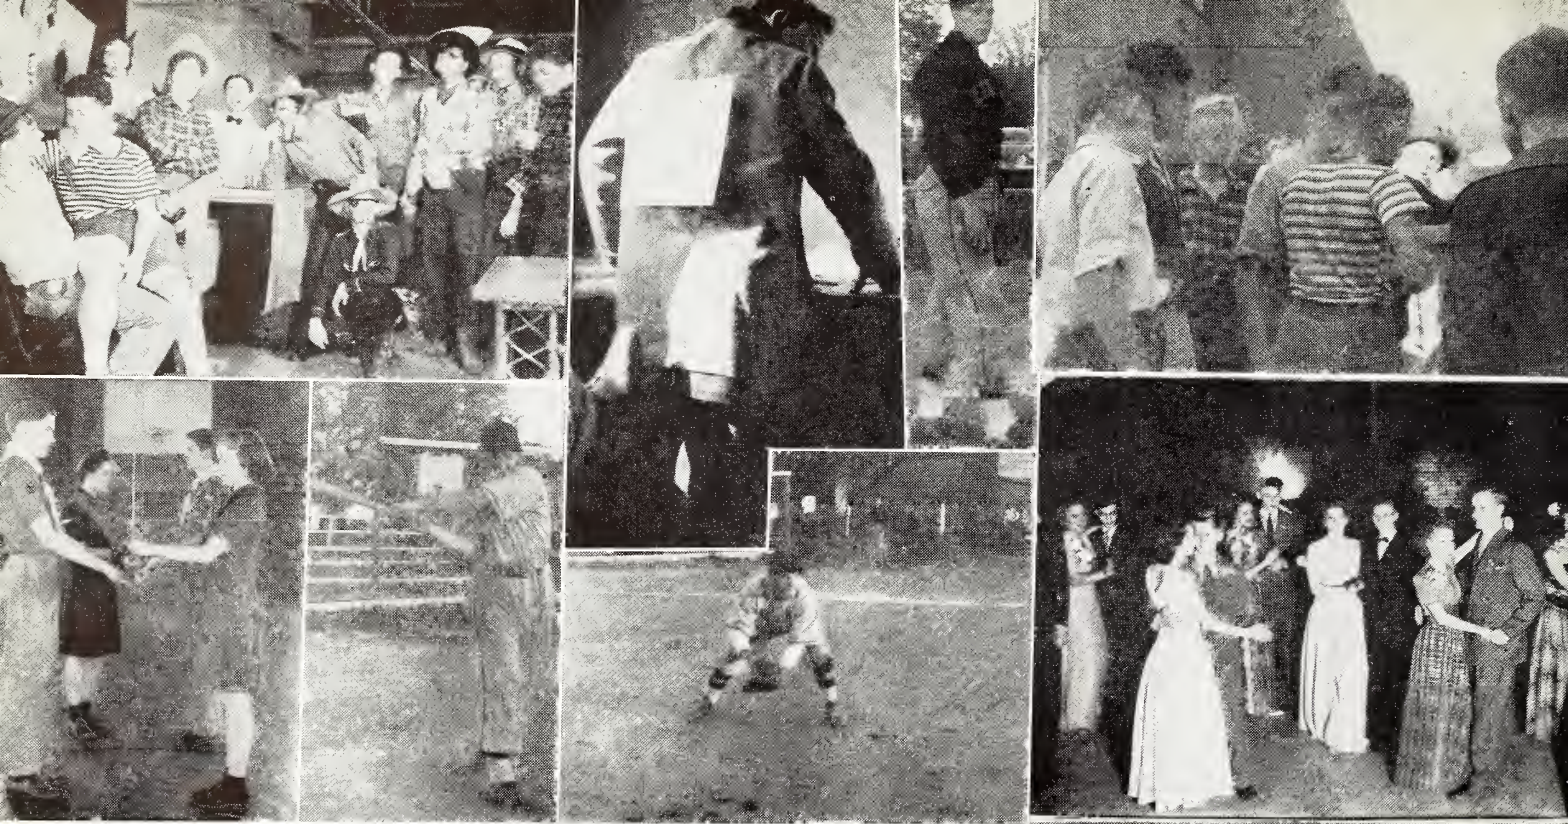

November and December

The operetta, "The Merry Milk Maids," was held on November 6 and 7 . . . The band practiced strenuously on formation for basketball games . . . It was love at first sight with Dick Neal and Jack Hicks . . . Alumni thronged to the gymnasium to witness "The March of Time" presented by the seniors "The Wabash Ambassadors" furnished music while grads, students and faculty tripped the light fantastic . . . The first snow was welcomed by all L. H. S. students and even the more dignified wanted to romp in its whirling flakes . . . Shelby Jones posed for our camera while draped around a telephone pole . . . Bonnie Shoemaker took time out from study to get her hair "done up" for the Christmas Mixer . . . Old and young alike look forward to the Sunshine Doll Show each year. Remember the pretty doll Patty Park dressed that won grand prize?

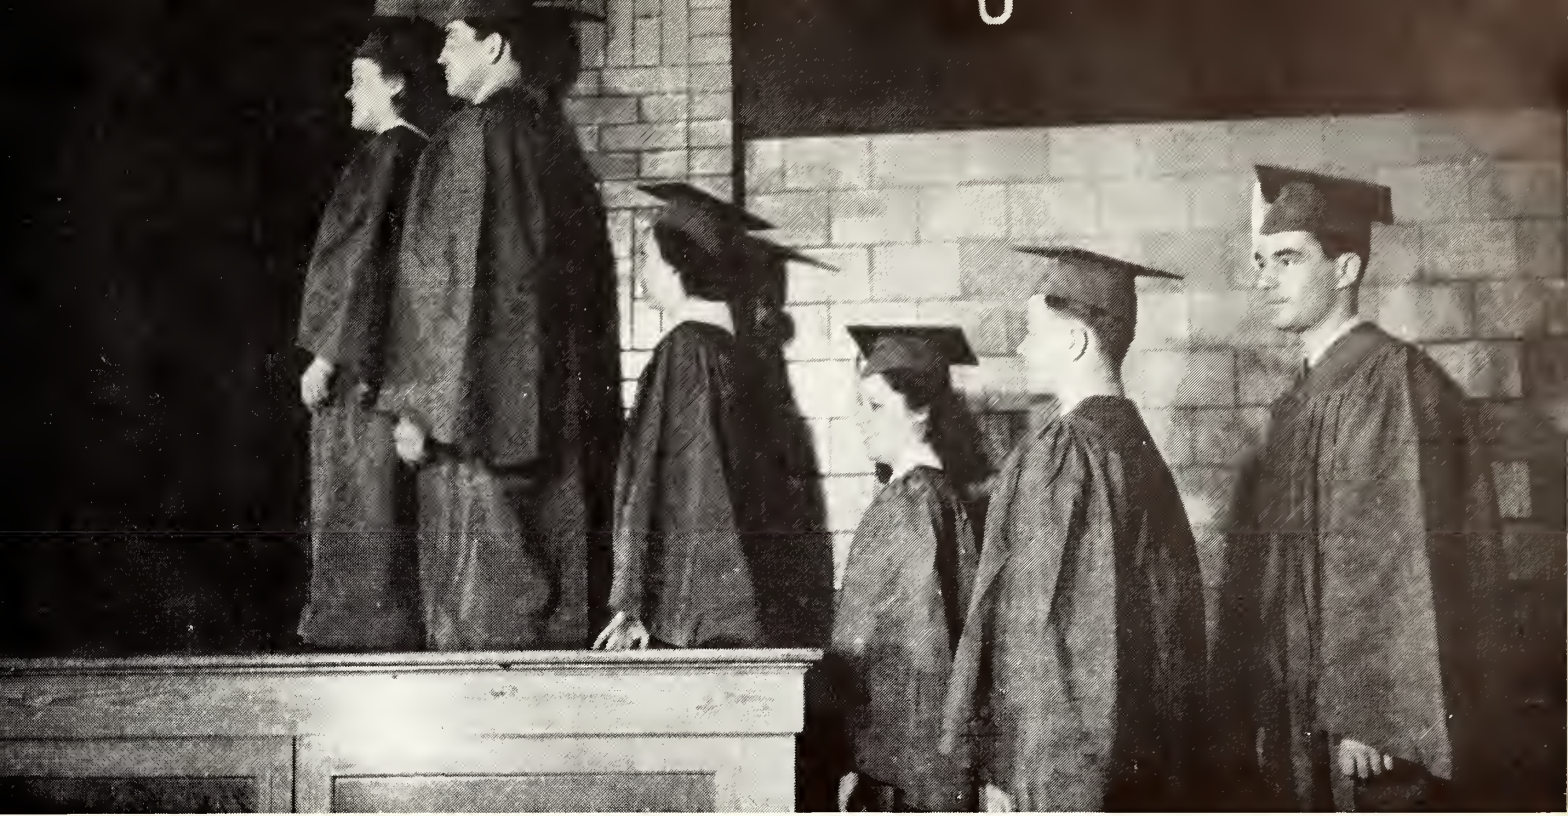

Why, Jimmy—and a senior, too. Oh, well, kids will be kids . . . The camera doesn't lie; some people really do study for finals . . . Except for a few mishaps, dancing in the Dug-out ran smoothly all winter . . . The team deserved a hand; they defeated Jeff and Frankfort in the same week . . . Many students, like Barbara Heady, have shown their patriotism by buying Defense Bonds and Stamps . . . No, students, Mr. Justice isn't a convict—he's just going into Uncle Sam's service . . . Bill Hudson, Alva Hudson and Jim Adair took time-out from their daily task of keeping our school clean to pose for the Cedars . . . The Cedars presents its king and queen: Dick Neal and Betty Kelley . . . Students have time for friendly little "get togethers" while waiting for the bell . . . John Donaldson should have gotten a good view of the "birdie"—he was close enough.

March and April

No one who attended the Hi-Y Mixer will forget the rendition of "Dangerous Dan McGrew" and the "Lone Ranger" Someone took Joe Bill Iacobelli at his word on April Fool's Day . . . Doc out showing the boys how it's done During the spring-time one can always find a group of students between the buildings before school . . . Jim Pauley, Mary Jane Caldwell, Bob Smiley and Marguerite Sipes took part in the impressive flag raising ceremony before each basketball game this year . . . The two Ralphs, Fisher and Houser, getting in swing for baseball . . . Junior and senior dancers paused for our cameraman while dancing at the Junior Prom held in the Armory April 24 A military theme prevailed with songs and dances to fit the occasion . . . Highlight of the eventful evening was the crowning of Majetta Stewart, prom queen, by Bill Crane, president of the Junior Class . . . Betty Wallace, Joanna Barr, Phyllis McCord, Aretta Snider and Barbara Jaques made very pretty attendants.

May

Spring is here and seniors are happy and carefree . . . A touch of sadness fills the air though, because this is the last time we will all be together . . . Every underclassman would like to be a senior when May comes around . . . Several seniors have jobs; some are going to college early . . . Baccalaureate was the first time we put on our caps and gowns . . . We got together for our last class party when we held our picnic . . . Class Night we combined comedy with seriousness as we presented our program . . . After receiving our diplomas and changing our tassels from right to left, we were no longer seniors, but alumni of L. H. S.

Readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic, chemistry, math and history are taught to us by the learned ladies and gentlemen that make up our faculty.

MR. CHARLES WHEELER

SCHOOL BOARD

The school board consists of three members, one of whom is elected each year for a three-year term.

Mr. Allen A. Parr has served as president of the board, Dr. O. R. Pfaff has been the secretary, and Mr. Charles E. Wheeler has kept the finances straight.

Mr. Parr is the senior member of the board, Dr. Pfaff has served two years, and Mr. Wheeler is the new member on the board.

The board meets each month to decide upon any necessary business. Duties of the board include the selection of the superintendent, the principals and teachers for all the schools in the city. The board fixes salaries of the workers in the schools, approves the annual budget, establishes ward boundaries, approves rules and regulations governing the school and text books.

ADMINISTRATION

The person who acts as superintendent over the three grade schools, the junior high school and the senior high school has a great responsibility. Mr. Paul Van Riper has served very ably in that capacity for twenty-two years. He is always willing to help any student or teacher in any way that he can.

Each day of the school year the one person to whom most students go for advice, permission, and for many other reasons, is Mr. T. L. Christian, principal of Lebanon High School. Mr. Christian has many duties to perform. He arranges all classes and schedules of the students, gives the boys absence and tardy excuses, gives permission to leave school and counter-signs all blue slips.

Miss Grace Etchison, assistant principal, does the same things for students in junior high that Mr. Christian does for the students in senior high. Miss Etchison is always on hand when she is needed.

The person who gives all absence and tardy excuses to the girls and supervises office work in Mr. Christian's office is Miss Helen Kenworthy, dean of girls. She counter-signs blue slips and gives boys absence and tardy excuses when Mr. Christian is away. In addition to her duties as dean of girls, Miss Kenworthy teaches mathematics and is school treasurer.

IN THE LINE OF DUTY

try.

First to go was Mr. Austin Myers, who enlisted in the Naval Reserve and was sent to Annapolis for training.

Mr. Paul Justice was the second teacher to leave. He is a Student Instructor at Chanute Field, Rantoul, Illinois.

Miss Louise Murphy accepted a Civil Service position in the office of the Rationing Board in Lebanon.

Mr. Thomas Headley resigned and joined Mr. Justice at Chanute Field, where he is also a Student Instructor.

Miss Mary Edith Monk left for a few days in April to begin life-long service as the wife of Lieutenant William G. Meese.

With each year a new class passes into the world and new students fill their places. Sevens and seniors alike play their part in the student body of

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1938, the class of 1942 entered Lebanon High School. Jane Voorhis was elected to lead us through that hectic year. She was assisted by Cecil Giles and Robert Fraley. Our sponsor was Mr. Walter Tyre. Our class party was held in the gymnasium on October 25. A member of our class, Madonna Waters, reigned as May Queen at the May Festival.

In 1939 our officers were Robert Wall, Jack Porter and Emma Lee Wade. Miss Ruth Brookshire and Mr. Walter Tyre were the sponsors. On the night of October 20, we attended a night club—our class party. Again our class was honored by the selection of Barbara Sharpe as Miss America for the Spring Festival.

In our junior year we elected Wayne Shirling, Jack Porter and Emma Lee Wade to be our officers. Miss Mary Ann Tauer and Mr. Marvin Richey were our sponsors. The Junior Jamboree was held on November 8 in the gym. There were side shows and various kinds of entertainment, including a dance in the Dugout. We entertained the Senior Class at the Junior-Senior Reception on April 25 with a journey with "Alice" through "Wonderland." Barbara Heady won first place in the Central Indiana Oratorical Contest and also the Senior Interclass Oratorical Contest.

At last we became seniors. Jack Porter was unanimously elected president. Assisting him were Patsy Barnett and Emma Lee Wade. We chose Miss Louise Murphy and Mr. Glenn Neeves for sponsors. On October 16 we held our dinner party at the Methodist Church and then came back to the school for a program and dancing. Homecoming was held on November 19. The program, "The March of Time," consisted of short skits representing the reunion classes. The dance was held in the Armory.

Our years in Lebanon High School have grown to a close. According to tradition, Baccalaureate was held on May 24 and Class Night on May 26. We accepted our diplomas with regret on Commencement Night, May 28.

CANDY COMMITTEE

The Senior Candy Committee is chosen by the class officers and sponsors. Patricia Edwards and Walter Copper were chosen co-chairmen to plan and direct the work of the committee for the school year.

The Candy Committee sells candy, cokes and ice cream at the basketball games to raise funds for the Senior Class.

Standing—Kenneth Poer, Rebecca Craig, Patty Edwards, Walter Copper, Rosemary Smith, Bob Fraley.

CANDELABRUM COMMITTEE

The Candelabrum Committee, composed of eight members of the Senior Class, is selected by the class at the beginning of the school year.

The seven-branched candlestick presented to the school by the class of 1929 represents the seven cardinal principles of secondary education: health, command of the fundamental processes, worthy home membership, vocation, citizenship, worthy use of leisure time and ethical character.

1942 CLASS PROPHECY

Your society editor has been assigned to take the readers on a date with four 1956 young moderns. We follow your reporter, MARY LOU REVEL, to tell the rest of the story.

"After ringing the doorbell, I was admitted by the house mother, Mrs. Van Astor, the former ISABEL ENDRES. Just then the young ladies appeared and were recognized as JEANNE ANN COOPER and PAT EDWARDS, two famous New York debutantes. Our conversation was rudely interrupted by the doorbell, announcing the arrival of DICK NEAL and BOB FRALEY. After greeting one another, we agreed that it might be a good idea to start on our date. Luckily we were used to surprises, for we stepped into a car chauffeured by KEITH CRAIG. Words were flowing freely when we were caught in a traffic jam. In the middle of the scene was a frustrated cop, JACK HEFLIN, frantically untangling the mix-up. We learned that there had been an accident ahead; so we plowed through the mob and found DR. JACK PORTER hovering over MABEL MORTON. As the ambulance, driven by FRANK FLEMING arrived, we left and traveled toward our destination, the Times Theatre on Little Square, now owned by WILLIAM COY. As we walked to the door, Pat spied a flower shop, and, as we entered, Dick recognized MARY K. PADDOCK. The trek to the box office was continued and Bob departed to buy the tickets from BEVERLY TAYLOR. After we had given the tickets to MARVIN CAVIN, the ticket taker, and we had left our wraps in the hands of the check room girls, WYNDHAM LINDLEY and ROSEMARY SMITH, we came face to face with BOB ROHN, Grand Exalted Programme Distributor. Behind Bob was the manager of the show, CHARLES WALLACE, and bringing up the rear was Charlie's yes man, KEITH CUNNINGHAM. We were placed in the custody of the ushers, BOB WALL and EARL HOOTMAN. As we sauntered down the aisle, we recognized, in a nearby box, the faculty from the Duncce School for Girls—we knew them "back when" as IWANNA WILLIAMSON, BARBARA HEADY, ONEEDA HORTON, BERTHA MARTIN, BARBARA LINTON, PHYLLIS LOVINGFOSS, EDNA HUNTER, FRANCES HUTSON, RUTH METZGER and MARY FERN ABOTT. After we groped our way to our seats, we began a study of our program. A glance uncovered RALPH FISHER as playwright, GEORGE UPDIKE as producer, and EUGENE BOWERS as stage manager. We had to abandon our program for the lights were dimmed to announce the concert pianist, Madame Jennie Marie, known to us as PAT BARNETT. A last glance had related that her music was arranged by FRANK MILLER. The next selection was a song by the producer's wife, DORIS JEAN ORWIG, who choose an aria from the popular modern opera, "The Song of the Hut-Sut." During the intermission we glanced at our program of next week's production, "Escape With the Breeze," by PEARL BOWMAN. Heading the cast were NORMA MORTON and

KENNETH POER; the other woman and the forsaken man were to be played by BETTY LEE ARTMAN and PHILLIP HARLOS. Supporting roles were to be taken by MAXINE HELMS, EUNICE BROWN, MAURICE PAVEY, MILDRED DOUGHTY and ELIZABETH CLARK. The lights dimmed, and the curtain opened to reveal the setting of the dream number. All scenery was designed by JACKIE WILLIAMS. In this skit, CHARLES CHRISTIAN dreamed of a beautiful ballerina, SUE PULLIAM. Sue was accompanied by a group of ballet artists, JANIE VOORHIS, ESTHER REYNOLDS, DONNA MAE BALDWIN, LOUISE ROWLAND, ANNA JEAN WEST, MARY JANE CALDWELL, BETTY HARLOS and BECKY CRAIG. A squint at our program told us that the costumes were designed by MADONNA WATERS. Between scenes BARBARA SHARPE sang. The curtains opened again, this time to show a nineteenth century Penny Arcade. Onto the scene strolled JOHN UPDIKE and EMMA LEE WADE. They were hailed to the movie by the barker, BILL SMILEY. John inserted a coin and they stood marvelling at the daring feats of the hero in the thriller, "The Villain Still Pursues Her." The hero, BOB KINAMAN, was trying to rescue the dainty heroine, BETTY KELLEY, from the heartless villain, GENE THOMPSON. The hero saved the heroine, and the curtain closed. WAYNE SHIRLING then appeared to sing a song from the Broadway hit, "The Merry Milkmaids." He was accompanied by JOE BILL IACOBELLI, CHARLES BURNER, LLOYD BURGIN, LLOYD WILHOITE, ROY KENDALL and FRED LINTON. In the grand finale the men's choir was joined by JOAN JONES, MARGERY NEESE, EILEEN LANE, JANE MCKINSEY, JUANITA MEDSKER, JEAN MORRIS, CLESTINE NEWMAN and ANNABELLE MOORE. While they sang a stirring tune, HERMAN HUMBLE and JAMES KING presented a novelty rhythm dance. As we left we noticed a group of prominent literary critics, BONNIE SHOEMAKER, LEONA SCHOOLEY, PHYLLIS TARMAN, and STYLEETA WETHINGTON. Outside the door we saw a party of renowned writers and publishers, MARY JANE CADICK, WALTER COUCHMAN, JOHN ISENHOUR and WALTER COPPER. After we left the show we made our initial appearance at the newest New York rave, "Club Sophisticate," owned by JIMMY WATKINS. As we reached our table, we were smothered by an onrush of service, first the head waiter, ERNEST WARREN, then his assistant, BILL EATON, and finally the cigarette girls, MARY JEWEL SHROUT and JEAN DUTCH. When we had been served, we gazed around for familiar faces and found ANITA WATSON, JANE VIRTUE, EILEEN STEVENS, LESTER REYNOLDS and DONNABELLE PENROD. As we left, Dick paid the cashier, MARIE JOHNSON. Going out to the street, we hailed a cab driven by STEPHEN WARD, owner of the "Tireless Cab Company." Back at the home, I bade them all goodbye, and modestly turned my head while—(censored!)"

ROW 7—Ella Jane Wheeler, Jim Wheeler, Janelle Wilcox, Norma Wills, Roger Williams, Leon Williamson, Mary Pearl Wilson, Mariam Wood.

FRESHMEN

The freshman is always disillusioned the first day of school. Since he is a freshman he is inclined to feel rather important. But alas, the upper classmen look down and call him "green." The teachers, from day to day, are unable to associate his name with him. But, as the year gets under way, perhaps his best friend is a senior and his teachers know him very well.

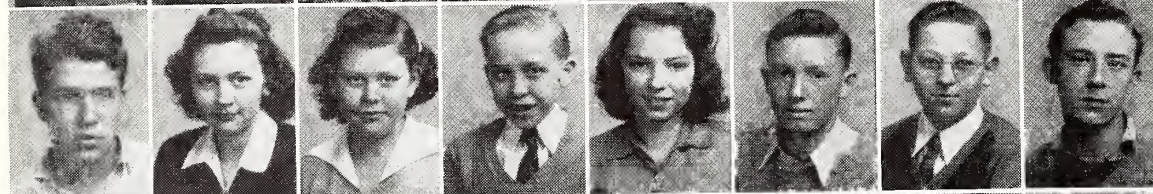

ROW 1 — Lowell Adair, Floyd Allen, Sam Artman, Mable Baldwin, Roy Barton, Teddy Biggerstaff, Agatha Booth, Bobby Bowman.

ROW 2 — Charles Bradley, Lois Bramlett, Suzanna Brame, Mary Louise Bratton, Patricia Brock, Jack Brown, Wilma Jean Burgin, Richard Callane.

EIGHTH GRADE

After having spent one year at dear old L. H. S., the eighth graders liked it so well they decided to come back this year. And even though their trials and triumphs didn't make the headlines quite as many times as did those of the juniors and seniors, they were still in there pitching.

Senior National Honor Society

The highest honor that can be given any high school student is that of membership in the Senior National Honor Society.

The requirements for membership in this organization are the following: a student must be in the upper fifteen per cent of his class scholastically and must display character, good school citizenship and leadership.

During the past year honor cups were given to the home rooms which had the highest scholastic record each six weeks. The society also sold school supplies to students and maintained records and bulletins of different colleges for the use of any student desiring information.

The proceeds from the sale of school supplies were donated for books for men in the service, to the Infantile Paralysis Fund and to the Red Cross Fund. Substantial awards to the two senior students with the best attendance records for four years were given in Defense Stamps.

The organization completed the project of an alumni file, giving information on every graduate of L. H. S., his present address and other vital information.

The officers were Eugene Bowers, president; Pearl Bowman, vice-president; and Barbara Heady, secretary-treasurer. Miss Lillian Witt was sponsor.

Junior National Honor Society

The Junior National Honor Society, for students of the 7th, 8th and 9th grades who have satisfied the requirements of character, scholarship, citizenship, leadership and service, was organized three years ago as a project of the Senior National Honor Society.

Its purpose is to further the scholastic achievement of the junior high students.

Initiation was held in May and ten members were taken into the society.

The organization donated money to the Infantile Paralysis Fund and held candy sales throughout the year.

The officers were Lois Morris, president; Jack Lenox, vice-president; Virginia Read, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Grace Etchison, sponsor.

JUNIOR SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The Junior High Sunshine Society under the supervision of Mrs. Drubelle Stephenson started on their journey by initiating new members.

Before entering upon their year's work, the society elected the following officers: Betty Wallace, chief sunshiner; Mary Lou Patterson, chief assistant; and Betty Jean Parr, recorder and banker.

The girls bought books for the Junior High Library and gave two parties, in addition to sponsoring several fudge and candy sales.

Lois Bramblett, Betty Parr, Mary Lou Patterson, Mrs. Stephenson, Betty Wallace, Mildred Wood, Norma Lee Gregg, Nancy Barnett, Mary K. Stahl, Kathryn Metz.

SENIOR SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The District Sunshine Convention held at Thorntown headed the society's activities for the year. Under the capable direction of the officers and the sponsor, the Sunshine Doll Sale was held in the junior high library, and Christmas baskets were distributed during the holidays. The society contributed to the Infantile Paralysis Fund and Riley Fund and also bought a $25 Defense Bond.

Officers of the society were Emma Lee Wade, president; Majetta Stewart, vice-president; Barbara Sharpe, treasurer; Mary Helen Read, corresponding secretary; Lola Belle Tyre, recording secretary and the sponsor, Miss Mary Ellen Armstrong.

The groups of the society were headed by Miss Lillian Witt, Miss Mary Edith Monk, Miss Ruth Brookshire and Mrs. Mary Ann McIntyre.

BOOSTERS CLUB

Scholarship, participation in extra-curricular activities, character and leadership are the main requirements for membership in the Boosters Club. In other words, the Boosters are the "all round boys" of Lebanon High School.

The club consists of ten boys: five seniors and five juniors. Each year in May five new junior boys are selected to take the place of the five seniors. The names of all eligible boys from the junior class are submitted to the club by Mr. T. L. Christian. The club selects ten boys and the final five are chosen by the faculty.

The club's purpose is to boost all worth-while activities connected with the school. For example, this year they had charge of the sale of Defense Stamps and Bonds.

Other Boosters' duties include ushering at all basketball games, keeping the basketball floor clean between halves and quarters and taking charge of the public address system in the gymnasium.

STUDENT SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The members of the Student Social Committee are the representatives elected by the members of each home room.

The purpose of the organization is to provide entertainment and recreation for students throughout the school year.

This year monthly mixers were held in the Dugout.

Buses were provided to take students to most of the out-of-town games and to the regional.

The Dugout was open to students for dancing and ping-pong one afternoon each week.

During February the committee had the stage floor repaired.

Officers were Jeanne Ann Cooper, president; Barbara Sharpe, vice-president and Majetta Stewart, secretary-treasurer. The sponsors were Mr. Marvin Richey, Miss Betty Arnsman, Miss Edna Judson and Mr. Joe Tyre.

HI-Y CLUB

Say "Pardon me" after running into the door—never hit a person who is sitting—he may be bigger than you are when he stands—always gossip when conversing with a group of people.

Rules such as these were discussed in the Hi-Y Courtesy Campaign conducted this year. The most courteous senior high boy and girl were given the courtesy awards and their names placed on the Hi-Y Courtesy Plaque.

The Hi-Y Mixer held March 13 in the Dugout featured "The Shootin' of Dan McGrew" and "The Case of the Dead Injun," and starred many well-known Hi-Y members.

Early last fall Dick Neal was labeled president with George Updike carrying the vice-presidency. Secretary and treasurer signs were pinned on Bob Fralley and John Updike. Jack Heflin was given a tommygun and told he was sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Neeves again held the post of sponsor.

CRAFT CLUB

The Craft Club was organized this year to take the place of the Marionette Club. It was suggested and supervised by Miss Muriel Mahoney, art instructor.

The only requirement for entrance is an interest in hand work. There were no special projects; the members made whatever they wished. Each member paid for the material he used.

At the first meeting they elected Beverly Taylor, president; Jack Stark, vice-president; and Patty Park, secretary-treasurer.

The club met every Wednesday activity period to work on their projects. Among these were wood carving and wood burning, weaving, leather and felt work and bead work.

LANGUAGE CLUB

The Language Club was organized after the French and Latin clubs decided to combine and promote more interest in the study of these foreign languages.

Meetings, held twice a month, were alternately planned by committees composed of the Latin and French students.

The big event of the year was the Christmas party in the Dugout where gifts, dancing and refreshments added to the merriment of the season. Of course, there was John Donaldson as Sanctus Clausus (old Santa, to you!)

Officers for the year were Charles Wheeler, president; John Donaldson, vice-president; Betty Anderson, secretary; and Bob Smiley, treasurer.

Miss Mary Ellen Armstrong and Miss Betty Arnsman sponsored the organization.

SCIENCE CLUB

After Mr. Austin Myers joined the Naval Reserves, a new sponsor was not installed until later in the year, and the club was not very active.

Meetings were held monthly and current scientific discoveries were discussed.

The sponsors were Mr. Fitz Hugh Lee and Mr. M. M. Jones. The officers were Walter Copper, president; Isabel Endres, vice-president; and Mary Lou Revel, secretary-treasurer.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

Because its members number six, "small but mighty" may well be the motto of the National Forensic League.

To be a National Forensic Leaguer one must have twenty points, a degree of merit, acquired in either debate or oratory.

The members met and elected the following officers: Carl Winkler, president; Betty Kelley, vice-president; Eugene Bowers, secretary; and Barbara Heady, treasurer.

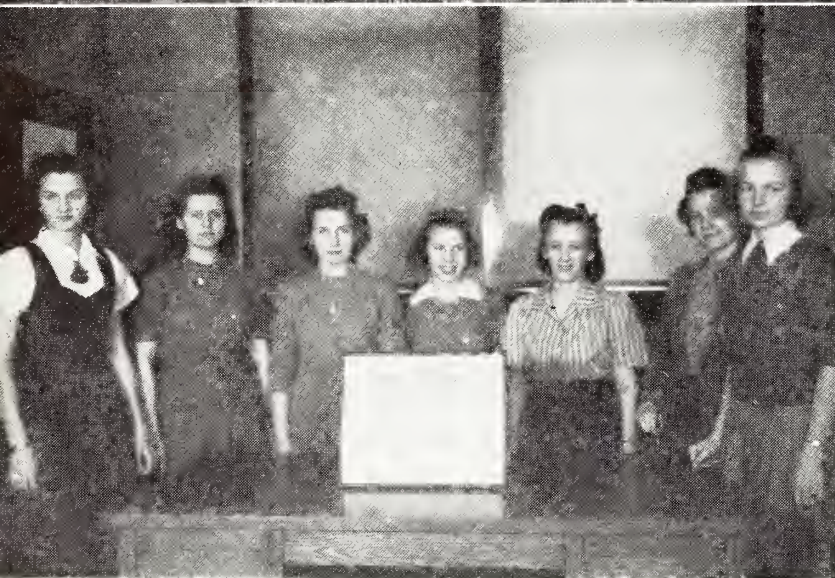

Mr. Richard Krause sponsored the organization.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is an international society interested in individual student journalists. The society was founded in 1926 by George Gallup and made its first appearance in our school in 1929 under the direction of Miss Esther Myer.

For a school to be eligible it must publish a newspaper, an annual, or a magazine which is considered of sufficient merit by the executive council of the Quill and Scroll.

To be eligible for membership the student must be at least a junior, in the upper one-third of his class scholastically, do creditable work in poetry, essay, or other forms of creative writing, and must be recommended by the faculty sponsor. He does not have to be a member of the staff of the school newspaper, annual, or magazine.

Officers elected the second semester were Betty Kelley, president; Marie Johnson, vice-president; and Sue Pulliam, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Mary Ann Tauer was sponsor of the organization.

PENNANT

The second semester staff was made up of a few new and a few journalists retained from the first semester staff. Sue Pulliam was again editor, with Virginia Walker assisting. Madonna Waters, with Mary L. Revel, wrote features. Betty Kelley, Jane Virtue, Roy Kendall and Patty Tarman were news writers. Aside from helping Emma Lee Wade with advertising, Barbara Heady wrote sports with Bob Fraley.

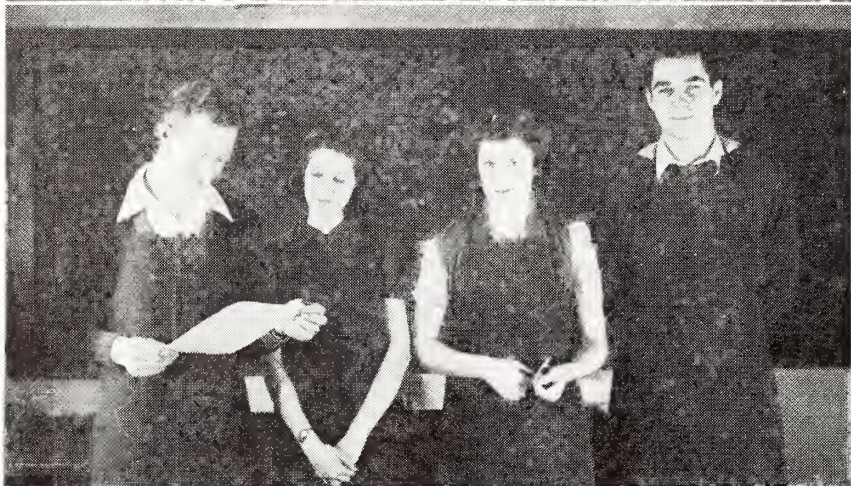

The second subscription drive was headed by Barbara Sharpe.

Library Assistants

Miss Ruth Brookshire has chosen several students to assist her with the innumerable tasks of school librarian.

Although any student with a high average is eligible to serve as student librarian, sophomores with training in library science are preferred.

The student receives one-half credit a semester for this training.

The student librarian's duties are to keep books mended, straighten shelves, and help the students find books.

Laboratory Assistants

Mr. Austin Myers, Mr. M. M. Jones and Mr. Hugh Lee selected four students to assist them in the laboratory and class room experiments this year. Since Mr. Myers has been drafted, Mr. Lee was appointed to fill the vacancy for the second semester.

A student must have two credits in science to be eligible for the position of laboratory assistant.

Senior Office Assistants

Who are those girls that parade from office to office and from room to room? Why, surely you know them—they are the office assistants.

Each semester Miss Helen Kenworthy, with the help of Miss Birdie Fay Custer, appoints the senior high office assistants. To each assistant a credit is given for the semester's work which consists of filing, typing, answering the telephone, mimeographing and running errands.

Junior High Office Assistants

Miss Grace Etchinson appointed thirteen girls from the junior high to assist her in taking care of the office work this year.

Their duties were to take telephone calls and do other office work requested by Miss Etchison.

The girls received one credit a semester for this training.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

To be eligible for Commercial Club, a student must have two credits in commerce or one credit and be earning another.

The organization not only stimulates interest in commercial subjects but enables the students to get practical experience in commerce.

This year the Commercial Club was responsible for the certificates and awards in the Commercial Department.

This year's officers were Rosemary Smith, president; Iwanna Williamson, vice-president; and Eileen Stevens, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Birdie Custer sponsored the organization.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Take a chili pepper, fried potatoes, hamburgers and a bunch of noisy girls and what have you? You guessed it—the Home Economics Club.

Esther Reynolds and Oneeda Horton acted as chief cooks for the year with Barbara Linton and Barbara Jaques, bottle washers. Doris Copeland and Mariam Wood were keepers of supplies. Mary K. Watts and Wanda McRoberts banked what they didn't spend, and Doris Copeland and Mariam Wood put club happenings down in black and white.

Their antics of the year included a penny lunch in February, sponsoring a mixer and springing a style show. Among their "goodest" of good deeds was the sponsoring of the Junior Red Cross Drive.

With the knowledge that they have had two years of successful cooking and sewing, they enter life as accomplished cooks and seamstresses.

BAND

The L. H. S. Band, under the direction of Mr. Wayne Van Sickle, has increased its membership from twenty-seven to seventy-one in the past three years. With this increase in membership has come a decided increase in community prestige, and many times the band has played at local and state functions.

On October 4, the band played at the State Corn Festival at Fowler and later in the year at Butler Field Day, the sectional tourney and a local defense meeting. This organization participated in the County Music Festival on Friday, March 20.

Their annual special band convocation was given Thursday, March 26, and their annual concert was held on May 1 for the public.

The band also played at all home basketball games and student convocations.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Clubs under the direction of Miss Alma McNeal presented the operetta "Merry Milkmaids" on November 6 and 7. They also participated in the County Music Festival and the District Music Festival with the glee clubs of Frankfort and Lafayette.

Because of the large group of students in the glee clubs, a concert choir of twenty-one students was selected from the special glee clubs.

Since sports are a great help in physical development and a part of our everyday life, we devote the next few pages to the sports of L. H. S.

ATHLETIC BOARD OF CONTROL

The Athletic Board of Control of Lebanon High School has two purposes to fulfill: to determine the price of season tickets and home basketball games and to decide what persons shall receive athletic awards—letters, monograms and numerals.

The board is composed of the following fourteen members: Mr. Paul Van Riper, superintendent of schools; Mr. T. L. Christian, principal; Miss Helen Kenworthy, dean of girls; Miss Edna Judson and Mr. Paul Neuman, physical education teachers; Dave Laflin, L Club president; Pete Mount, basketball representative; Patsy Barnett, Rebecca Craig, Ralph Houser and Jack Heflin, boy and girl representatives; and Bob Fraley, Bill Crane and Betty Kelley, president, vice-president, and secretary, respectively, of the association.

The Tiger Cage Season

MOORESVILLE 39-24

An experienced Tiger squad returned to begin its season against Mooresville. The squad held a five-point lead at half-time and came back to defeat the Mooresville team, 39-24. The team was a little nervous but showed prospects of a good ball club.

LAFAYETTE 24-32

The Tigers entered their second game against the strong Broncos. The football tactics proved to be too much for the Tigers, but they went down fighting.

S. B. CENTRAL 25-41

The team traveled to South Bend to encounter the noted Bears. The trip must have upset the Tigers because the Bears overwhelmed the Tigers by a score of 41-25.

ANDERSON 35-33

The Lebanon Cagers took the floor at Anderson disgusted with two defeats and out-played and out-fought the Indians to win, 35-33. Mount's last second basket won the ball game. He also took scoring honors with sixteen points.

HAMMOND CLARK 41-20

The Tigers, with an advantage in height, swamped the team from the Calumet Section. Clark either didn't have the material or the Tigers were above par because the score was doubled, 41-20.

WEST SIDE 47-31

West Side came to town wanting revenge for last year, but the Tigers proved too tough for them and they were sent home in defeat. Mount outscored the Red Devils with 32 points.

FRANKFORT 25-41

The Tigers entered Howard Hall seeking victory over their long standing rivals The Hot Dogs out-scrapped and out-shot the Tigers, winning, 41-25. Stine of Frankfort turned in a top-notch performance with 17 points.

CRAWFORDSVILLE 34-40

Lebanon went into this game mourning over five straight losses to the Athenians. The game was hard fought but the Athenians finally won their sixth straight from the Tigers. Houser and Mount shared the limelight for Lebanon.

JEFFERSONVILLE 19-29

The Red Devils out-played the Tigers to get revenge for the last two years. Neither team played very well, but the Red Devils won, 29-19. This was the longest trip of the season for Lebanon.

ELWOOD 28-47

The Tigers went to Elwood, where the Panthers proved to be too much for the Tigers to hold. McGraw, Panther forward, played a sparkling game, getting 20 points.

SHERIDAN 36-29

The jinx of never beating the Blackhawks on their home floor faced the Tigers, but Lebanon overcame this jinx by winning, 36-29.

FRANKFORT 30-24

The Hot Dogs, first in the North Central Conference, came to town over confident and were out-played by the Tigers. Again we split two games with the Casemen by winning, 30-24.

LAFAYETTE 33-28

Lebanon, in good spirits over the Frankfort win, went to Jeff to out-fight the Broncos and came home victorious. Mount held All-State Biggs to five points. Beating the two top teams in the North Central Conference in one week gave Lebanon the position of thirteenth in the state.

LAPEL 25-33

The Bulldogs, boosting a ten game winning streak, out played the bewildered Tigers and went home with an eleven-game winning streak.

CATHEDRAL 34-18

Lebanon went to Indianapolis confident of a win over Cathedral and came home more confident because they beat the Irish, 34-18. Houser and Smiley got nine points apiece.

F. W. SOUTH SIDE 42-41

The famous Archers rolled into town hoping for victory but found the Tigers a little too tough for them. Laffin's winning basket was in the air when the gun was fired. Mount and Heflin led the Tiger attack. This was the first encounter between the two teams.

SHORTRIDGE 31-30

Shortridge hoped to extend their victories to nine straight over the Tigers, but found the Tigers too strong for them and were edged out by the count of 31-30. Houser was high-point with fourteen points.

CRAWFORDSVILLE 36-20

Lebanon overcame the jinx of seven straight to beat the Athenians, 36-20. The score was tied at half-time, 12-12. Mount and Laffin starred with 10 points each.

BRAZIL 43-41

After Brazil's comeback in the last quarter, the Tigers had to play an overtime to win 43-31. Mount and Laffin scored 34 points, Mount getting 24.

COLUMBIA CITY 47-26

Coach Abe Devol brought his team to play his Alma Mater and found the Tigers too tough for Columbia City. Mount and Houser lead the Tiger attack with 36 points. The Tigers wound up the regular season with 13 wins and 7 losses, tying the record of any Neuman-coached team.

SECTIONAL

Lebanon drew Thorntown as their first foe. Thorntown held a ten-point lead at half-time and a seven-point lead entering the final stanza. Lebanon found the range and nosed them out by a score of 27-25.

In the semi-finals the Tigers fought their way to the finals by beating Jamestown 44-32.

Whitestown proved not too tough for the Tigers and were sent home as runner-up in the Sectional. The score was 48-20. Mount paced the game with 22 points. Lebanon became the Sectional Champs for twelve consecutive years.

REGIONAL

Lebanon entered the Regional against the Jeff Broncos. The Tigers couldn't find the range and were beaten by the fast Broncos, and thus quenched our dreams of Hammond. The score ended 28-18. Frankfort came through to win the Regional.

Jack Heflin, senior backguard, was elected captain for the 1941-42 season.

Tiger Cubs

For the 1941-42 season the Cubs were composed of freshmen Kelley Gilliam, Jesse Neese and Morris Dawson; sophomores Leon Williamson, John Donaldson and Herbert Helms; and juniors Charles Wheeler, Shelby Jones and Robert Truitt. They won seven and lost nine games during the season. Although they lost two more games than they won, the Cubs out-scored their opponents 348 to 335.

The Tiger Cubs started their season by dropping four close games to Mooresville 24-19, Jeff of Lafayette 29-25, Anderson 20-17 and West Lafayette 24-23. Frankfort then dealt them a stunning blow, defeating the Cubs 26-12. Before the Cubs could recover they were out-scored by Crawfordsville 21-15.

Elwood was the first game of the new year, but the Cubs couldn't shake off the jinx and lost another close one 25-23.

Breaking their seven game losing streak by beating an undefeated Sheridan team 29-21 sent the Cubs on their way to a rousing win over Frankfort 31-25.

The Jeff Colts stopped the Tigers seconds 19-14, but they came back to roll over Lapel 29-17, Cathedral 30-23 and Shortridge 26-23, before losing to Crawfordsville 32-23.

The Cubs then ended their season by giving Brazil a 29-21 defeat and by out-shooting Columbia City 22-9.

Sophomore John Donaldson and Junior Bob Truitt were high point men for the second team with 90 and 70 points, respectively.

Many times during the season Shelby Jones and Charles Wheeler were substitutes on the varsity.

Baseball

Doc Heath's L. H. S. baseball team won its second consecutive Boone County Championship last fall. To gain the County Crown the Tigers were undefeated in six starts. In winning the County Championship, Lebanon won from Dover 22-1, Zionsville 12-1, Jamestown 5-4, Advance 17-5, Pinnell 2-0 and Perry Central 5-1.

The baseball squad is composed of sixteen boys, half of whom are letter men; namely, Ralph Fisher, James King, Gene Thompson, Robert Fraley, seniors; Ralph Houser, David Laflin, Charles Wheeler, juniors, and Pete Mount, sophomore.

In their six wins the team compiled a fancy batting average of .267. The most consistent hitters were Houser, Thompson, Wheeler and Fisher. The team not only hit well but fielded superbly, and the pitching was—you might say—perfect. Pete Mount, who proved to be a top-notch flinger his freshman year, continued to pitch well in his sophomore year. Mount added four wins to his perfect record this fall. In Pete's freshman and sophomore years he has won eleven games and has never tasted defeat.

Along with the 1941-42 baseball squad's fine record we must add that during Doc Heath's coaching the Tigers have lost only one of twenty games.

Freshman Basketball Team

The 1941-42 Freshmen squad had a very unsuccessful season. The freshmen under the leadership of Coach John Dulin did not win a game in a dozen starts.

They lost a pair of games to Frankfort, Sheridan, Crawfordsville, Noblesville, Westfield and Lafayette.

Half of these defeats came by margins of six or fewer points.

Seated—Morris Adair, Fred Swope, Paul Tauer Jr., Budd Wade, Bob Chambers.

Standing—Mitchell Vogel, David Jones, Marvin Slagle, manager, Don Wall, George Porter.

Next year's grads won the Senior High Interclass crown this year when they downed the seniors in a championship game 21-20.

Both juniors and seniors won four and lost two in the regular schedule, but the juniors' one-point victory in the play-off meant the crown for them. The sophomores split their games while the freshmen emerged victorious only once.

Junior High Basketball Team

Coach Jewell Kincaid's 1941-42 Junior High squad emerged victorious eight times against five defeats.

They downed Sheridan and Westfield twice; Pinnell, Whitestown and Zionsville; split a pair of games with Frankfort; lost two to Noblesville; and lost one to Crawfordsville and Dover.

Junior High Interclass

In the Junior High Interclass Tournament the 8 A's won the title in a play-off with the 8 B's by defeating them 33 to 22.

The two eighth grade teams split their two games in the regular schedule and each won four games from the two seventh grade teams. The 7 A's downed the 7 B's twice to take third position.

Girls' Athletic Association

A girl automatically becomes a member of the Girls' Athletic Association when she receives an award in athletics. Miss Edna Judson is the capable sponsor of the association.

The awarding system has been changed this year. A girl must get 100 points for a numeral; 190 points for a monogram; 280 points for a letter; 360 points for a sweater.

The following served as officers of the organization for this year: Rebecca Craig, president; Maxine Helms, vice-president; Ruth Laflin, secretary-treasurer; and Lolita Hoffman, reporter.
